

Women's History Month: Celebrating Our 2024 Spirit Award Winners

"True empowerment is found in overcoming adversity and embracing independence and dignity at every step."

This Women's History Month, we honor both the trailblazers of women's rights and the resilient women of today, whose courage and determination are forging new futures and overcoming challenges, both big and small.

Thanks to your generous support, Bettie Brand Mothers' Empowerment Fund proudly introduces our four remarkable 2024 awardees, expanding our legacy to 28 empowered women since 2013. Their journeys from adversity to success are a source of inspiration.
